

1951

Over a quarter of a century ago the writer organized and introduced the Rodeo at White Sulphur Springs. The cut reproduced below was created for the program.
H.S.

1951

White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia

October 4th, 5th and 6th

The RODEO

North Entrance, The Greenbrier

Another year rolls around and it's Rodeo time at the Greenbrier Hotel, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va. So shake the moth balls out of your fall golfing togs and be on hand when the first shot is fired across the placid waters of Howards Creek.

Yes, sir, bring the ladies, and write The Greenbrier you are coming to the Rodeo and request space desired.

The Colonnades Club at The Greenbrier

18th Hole, Old White Course

Schedule of Events

Thursday, Oct. 4th

18 Holes warming up and qualifying round.

Friday, Oct. 5th

18 Holes — Medal Play Handicap.
Low gross and many low net prizes.

Saturday, Oct. 6th

Last round-up. 18 holes medal play —
Handicap — Low net prizes and the Annual $1,000.00 Sweepstakes.

The Family Dinner promptly at 7 o'clock.
Distribution of prizes and sweepstakes winners.

Entertainment par or better by pros and amateurs. Our organization has many executives who are tops in gags, songs, etc., and ask you to be good enough to join the amateur hour and permit the Hon. James McCahey to stage your stunt.

J. W. BEHAN
EDW. GRADY
P. M. SNYDER
SCOTT NICHOLLS AND
HOLLY STOVER

THE 1951 RODEO

Come and join the happy players on the long, long trail winding from the Casino to the Greenbrier Hotel. Be exhilarated by the mountain air and enjoy the countryside all dressed up in its autumn colors. And, regardless of whether or not your golf is par, the diversion and good fellowship will bring you dividends of happiness and contentment. So be on hand.

